Every student has a unique set of training data in the Canvas “Files” page.

Fit your data, and give the function that generated the data from the input features.

Required Steps

- Submit your function, including all non-zero, relevant coefficients, and associated terms.