System Config vs Single User Config

System configuration files are located in the /etc directory.

User configuration files are located in users home directory.

In the textbook chapter 11 still uses nano for its examples - you can follow the examples as written and get some nano experience or you can use vim.

Textbook Time

- WES-11 Modifying the Environment