Cable making

Description

In this lab you will need to correctly build and test an Ethernet cable. This will be done in class. All materials will be provided to you; however, if you happen to own a crimper, it would be nice if you could bring it with you on our lab day!

To pass off

You will test your newly created cable and show me that it passes!